

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH AT THE 14TH STREET Y

Celebrating Women All Month Long

14Y Gallery Upcoming Exhibit: WOMXN IN POWER

March 2 – 27

In 2019, female-identified folks from around the world sent artist Sharone Halevy a photo of a moment they felt powerful. Each image was individually sketched and then collaged into one large work.

WOMXN IN POWER Gallery Opening Thursday, March 5 | 7:00 PM

Join your downtown community and artist Sharone Halevy for the gallery opening of this empowering exhibit, WOMXN IN POWER. Light refreshments will be served.

Women's History Solo Series at the Theater at the 14th Street Y

The 14th Street Y is proud to present Women's History Solo Series in honor of Women's History Month throughout March. It is important to value the brave voices of women from our history while celebrating the talented artists of today who honor them through art. Join us in the theater for an educational, impactful and inspiring experience.

They weren't supposed to read,
Or write.
Or even look you in the eye...

...But they did

First by Faith: The Life of Mary McLeod Bethune February 25 – March 15

2018 Winner of United Solo Theatre Festival's Best Educational Show Award. A part of the Women's History Solo Show Series, Abrams uses storytelling/song, bends time/ gender, explores Bethune's journey from an uneducated child to a world-renowned educator; returning to earth to share one last lesson.
